Cindy,

Youre too complimentary but thanks anyways. The same applies to you; you're very artistic and a bookworm. You'll have to let me borrow some of your paperbacks this summer because I'm really in the mood for reading. I'll try not to go to far away but if I do I'll send you a postcard. Thanks also for the candy & use of your comb during that "special" hour of the day. Our religion discussions were lively as well as English. French leaves me speechless. I can hardly wait to see you without your braces; I bet you will look really nice. Nicer than now that is.

Love,
Kathy(E)

Be sure to continue that great romance & language of French next year. Gordy sounds like quite a boy, even though you have your disagreements. Our semesters will be a snap after all 4 of our tests tomorrow. 6 days and then pleasant summer. Have fun with your new acquaintances cet été.

... Moi aussi.

Cindy,
You are a real sweet kid, stay that way always.

Love,
Paige (Deming)

Dear Cindy,
It's been a pleasure going to school with you, and I hope we'll be together again next year.

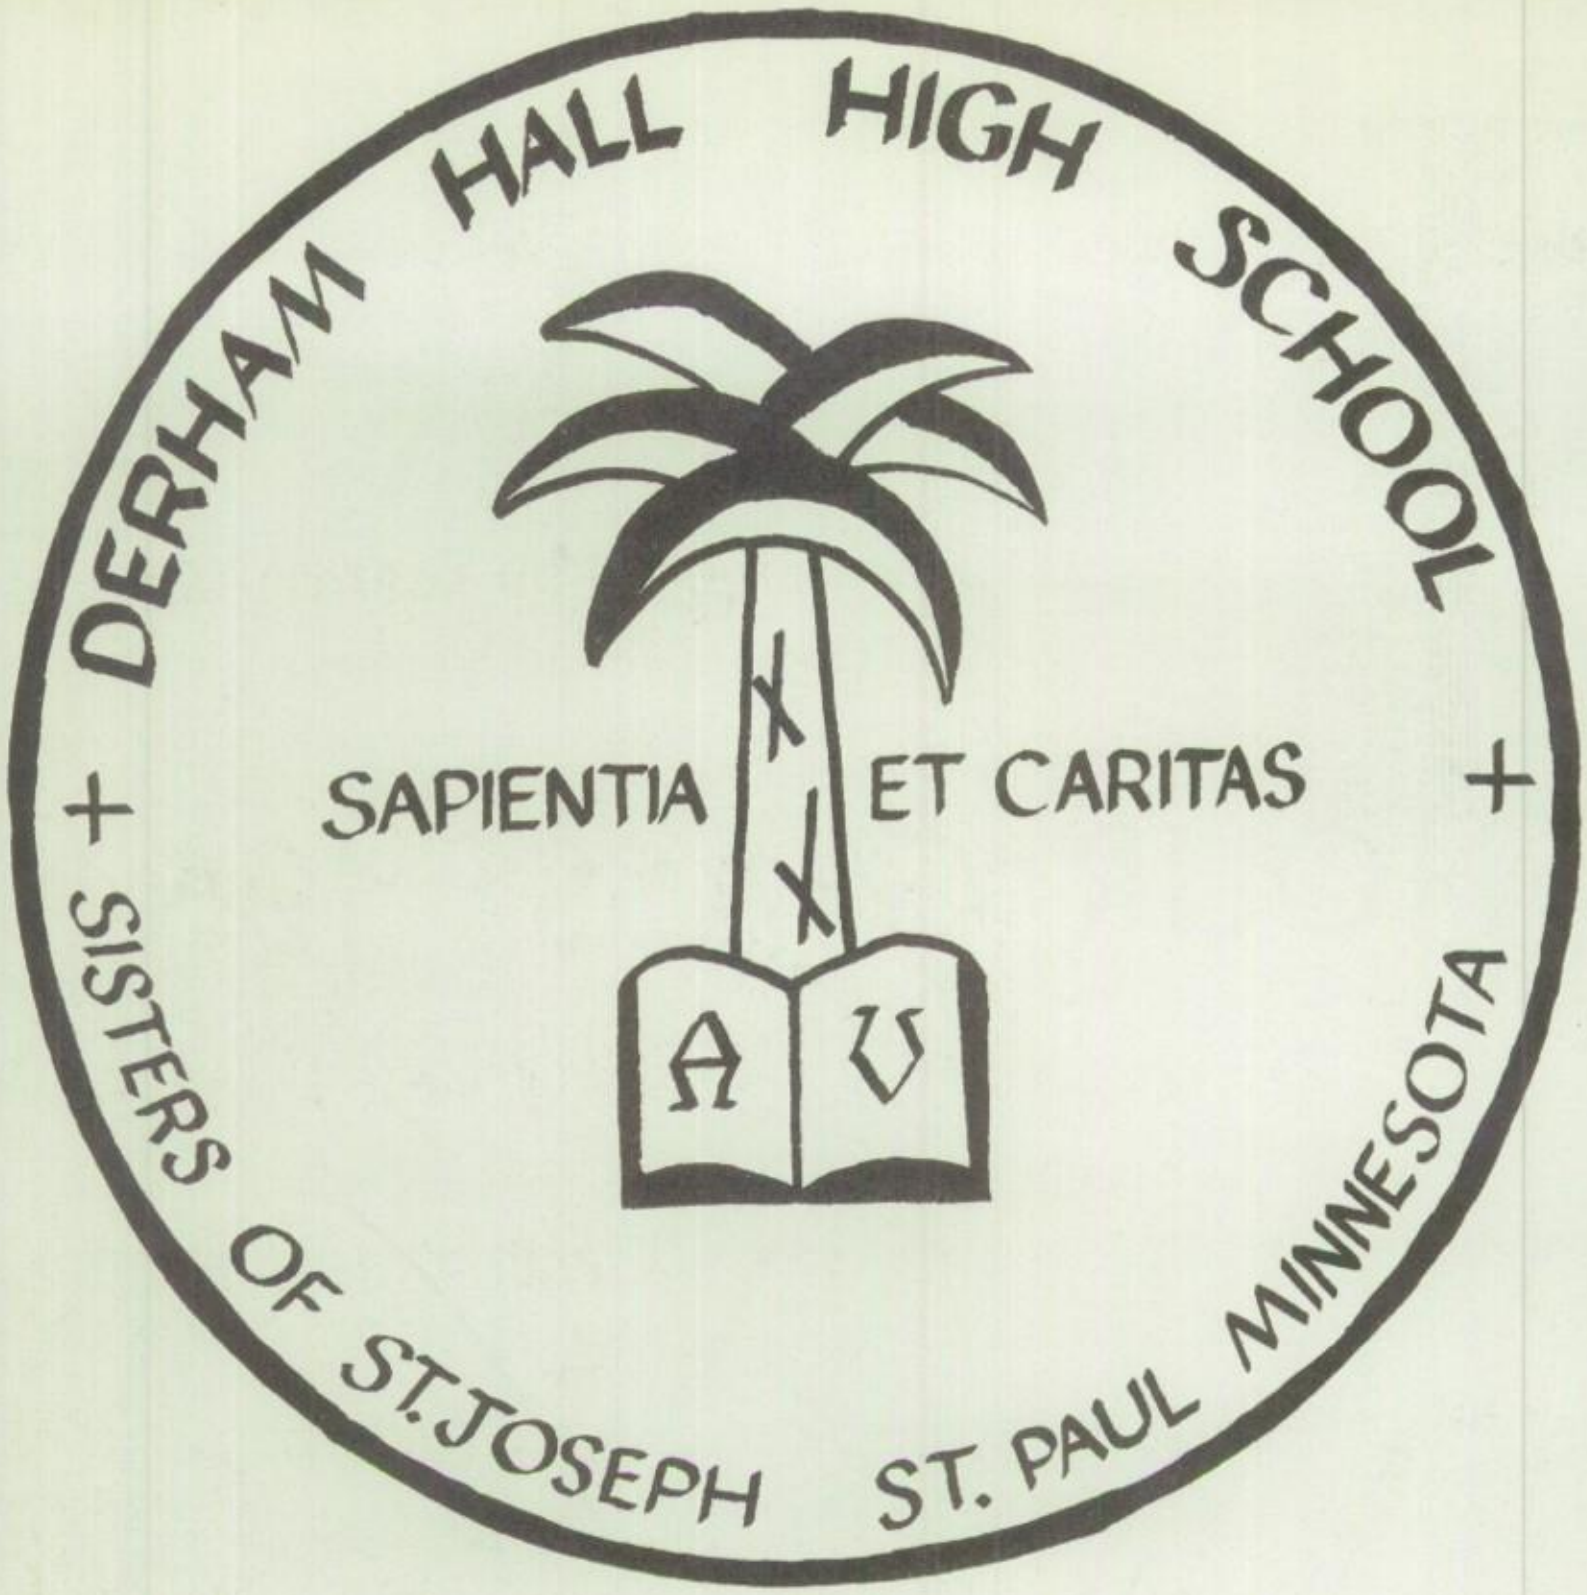
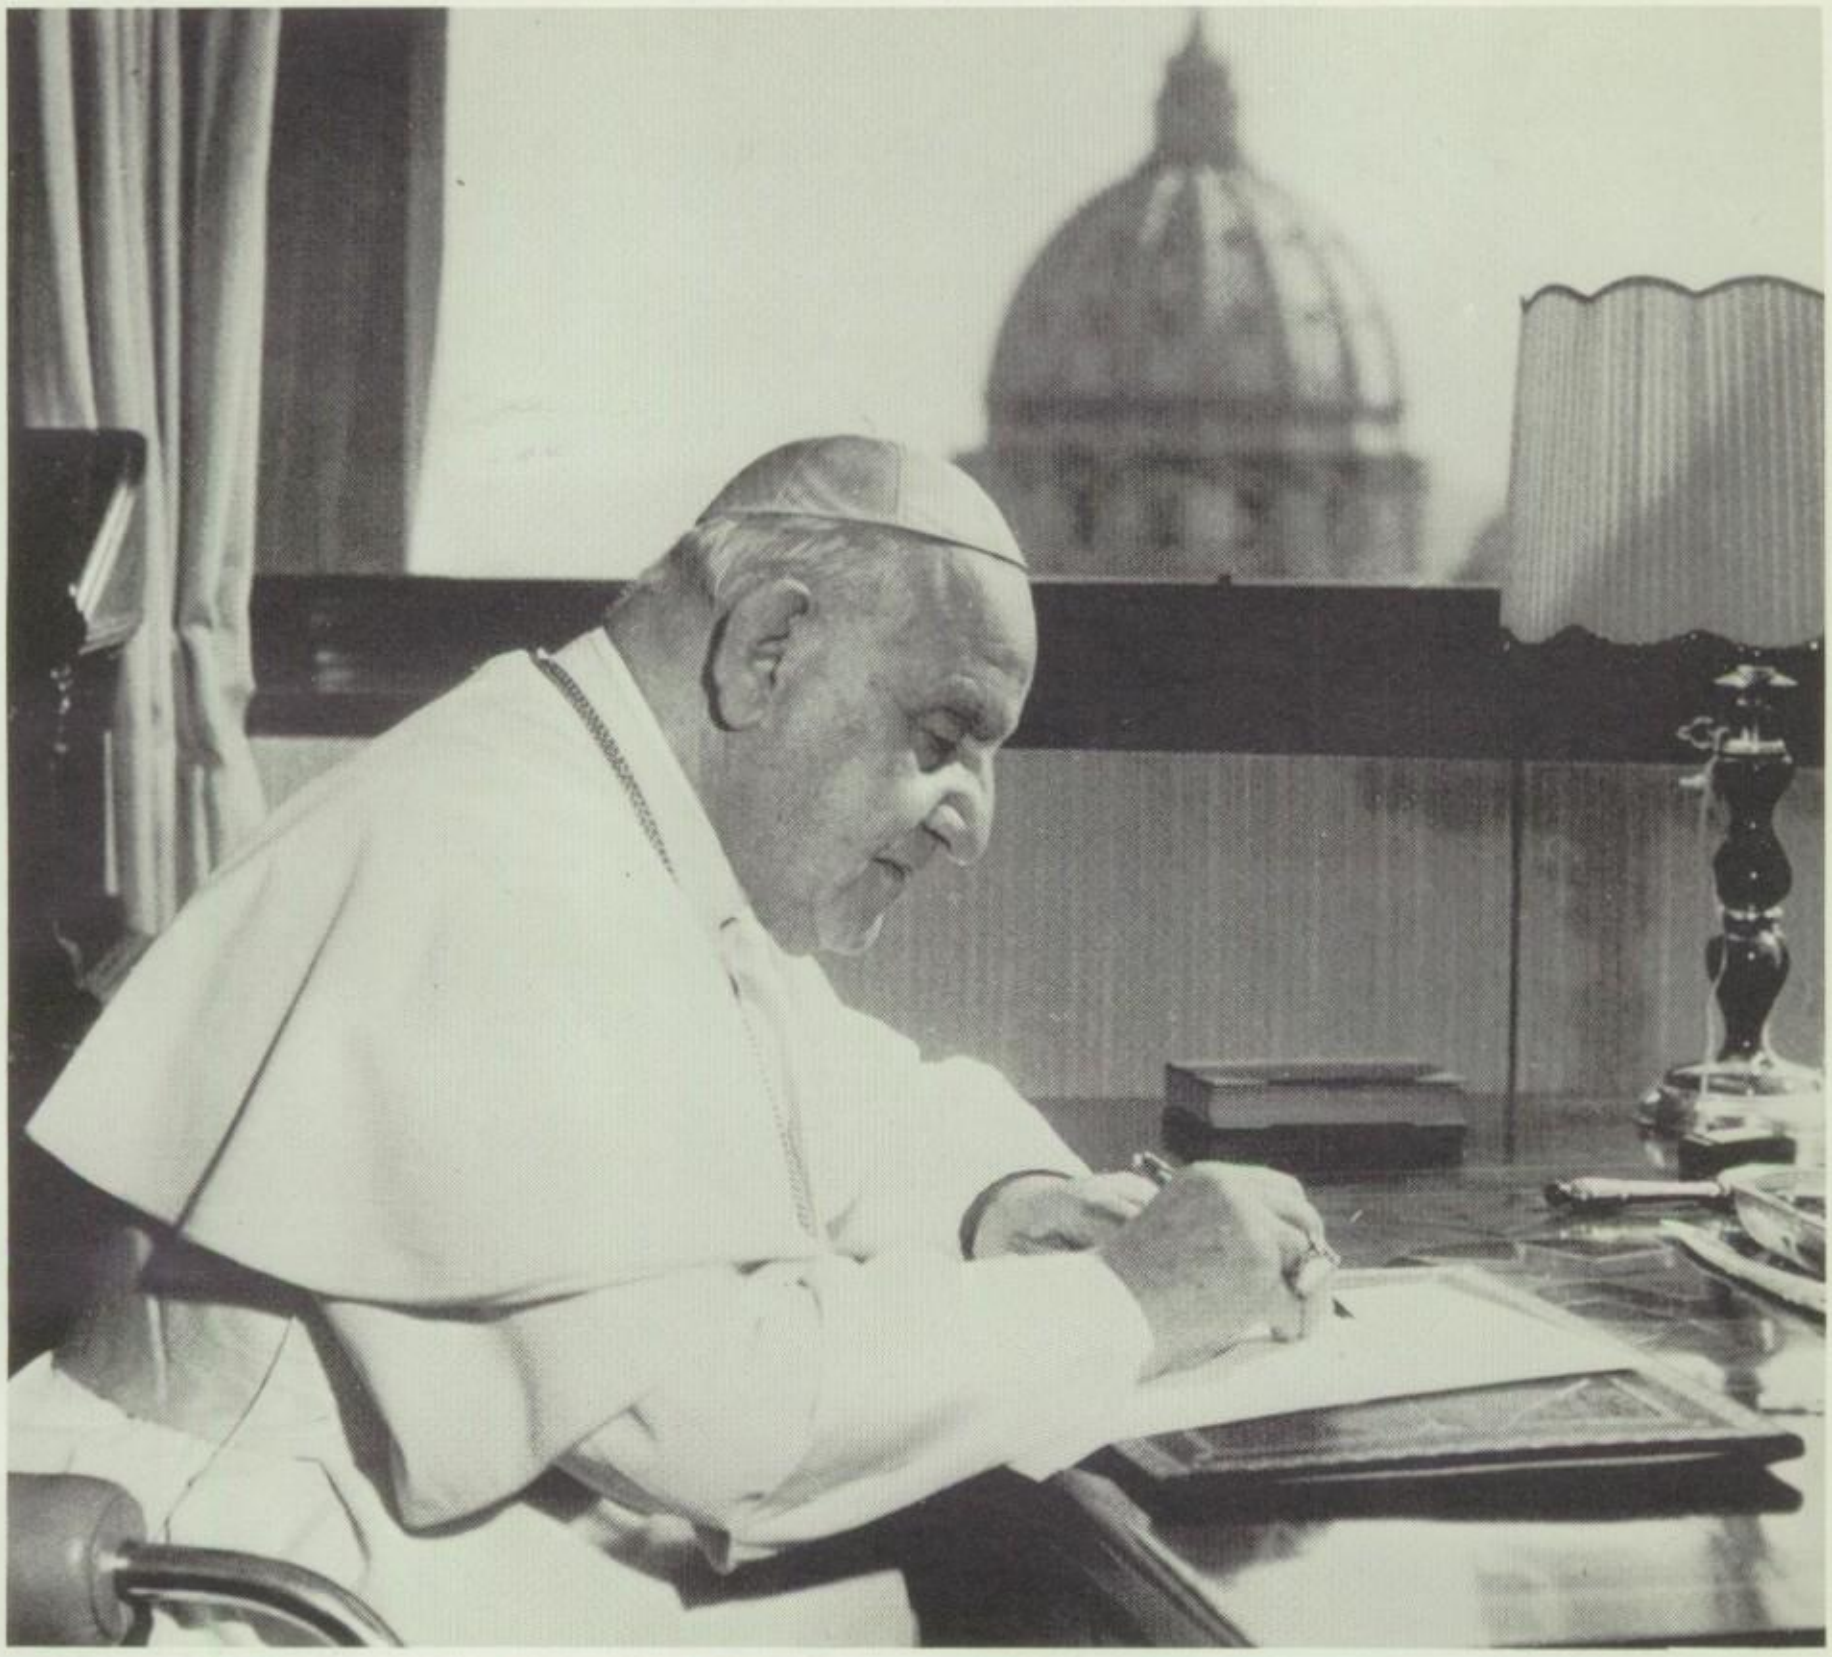
DERHAM HALL HIGH SCHOOL



FORWARD

Sapientia et Caritas, wisdom and charity, is our motto giving meaning and direction to students of Derham Hall. The open book with the Alpha and Omega sign, the beginning and the end, symbolizes learning that is centered in Christ. The palm tree represents St. Joseph, our guardian and the patron saint of the sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet.



DEDICATION

Through his warm human nature and sincere love of all people, Pope John XXIII was truly the Universal Pastor. His dynamic influence on the Church and on the whole world is contagious and one that will truly live forever.

SISTER ISABELLA PRINCIPAL

In a sense, Sister Isabella is the heart of Derham Hall. It is her energy, her counsel, her spirit of selflessness that have for the last eight years given impulse to –

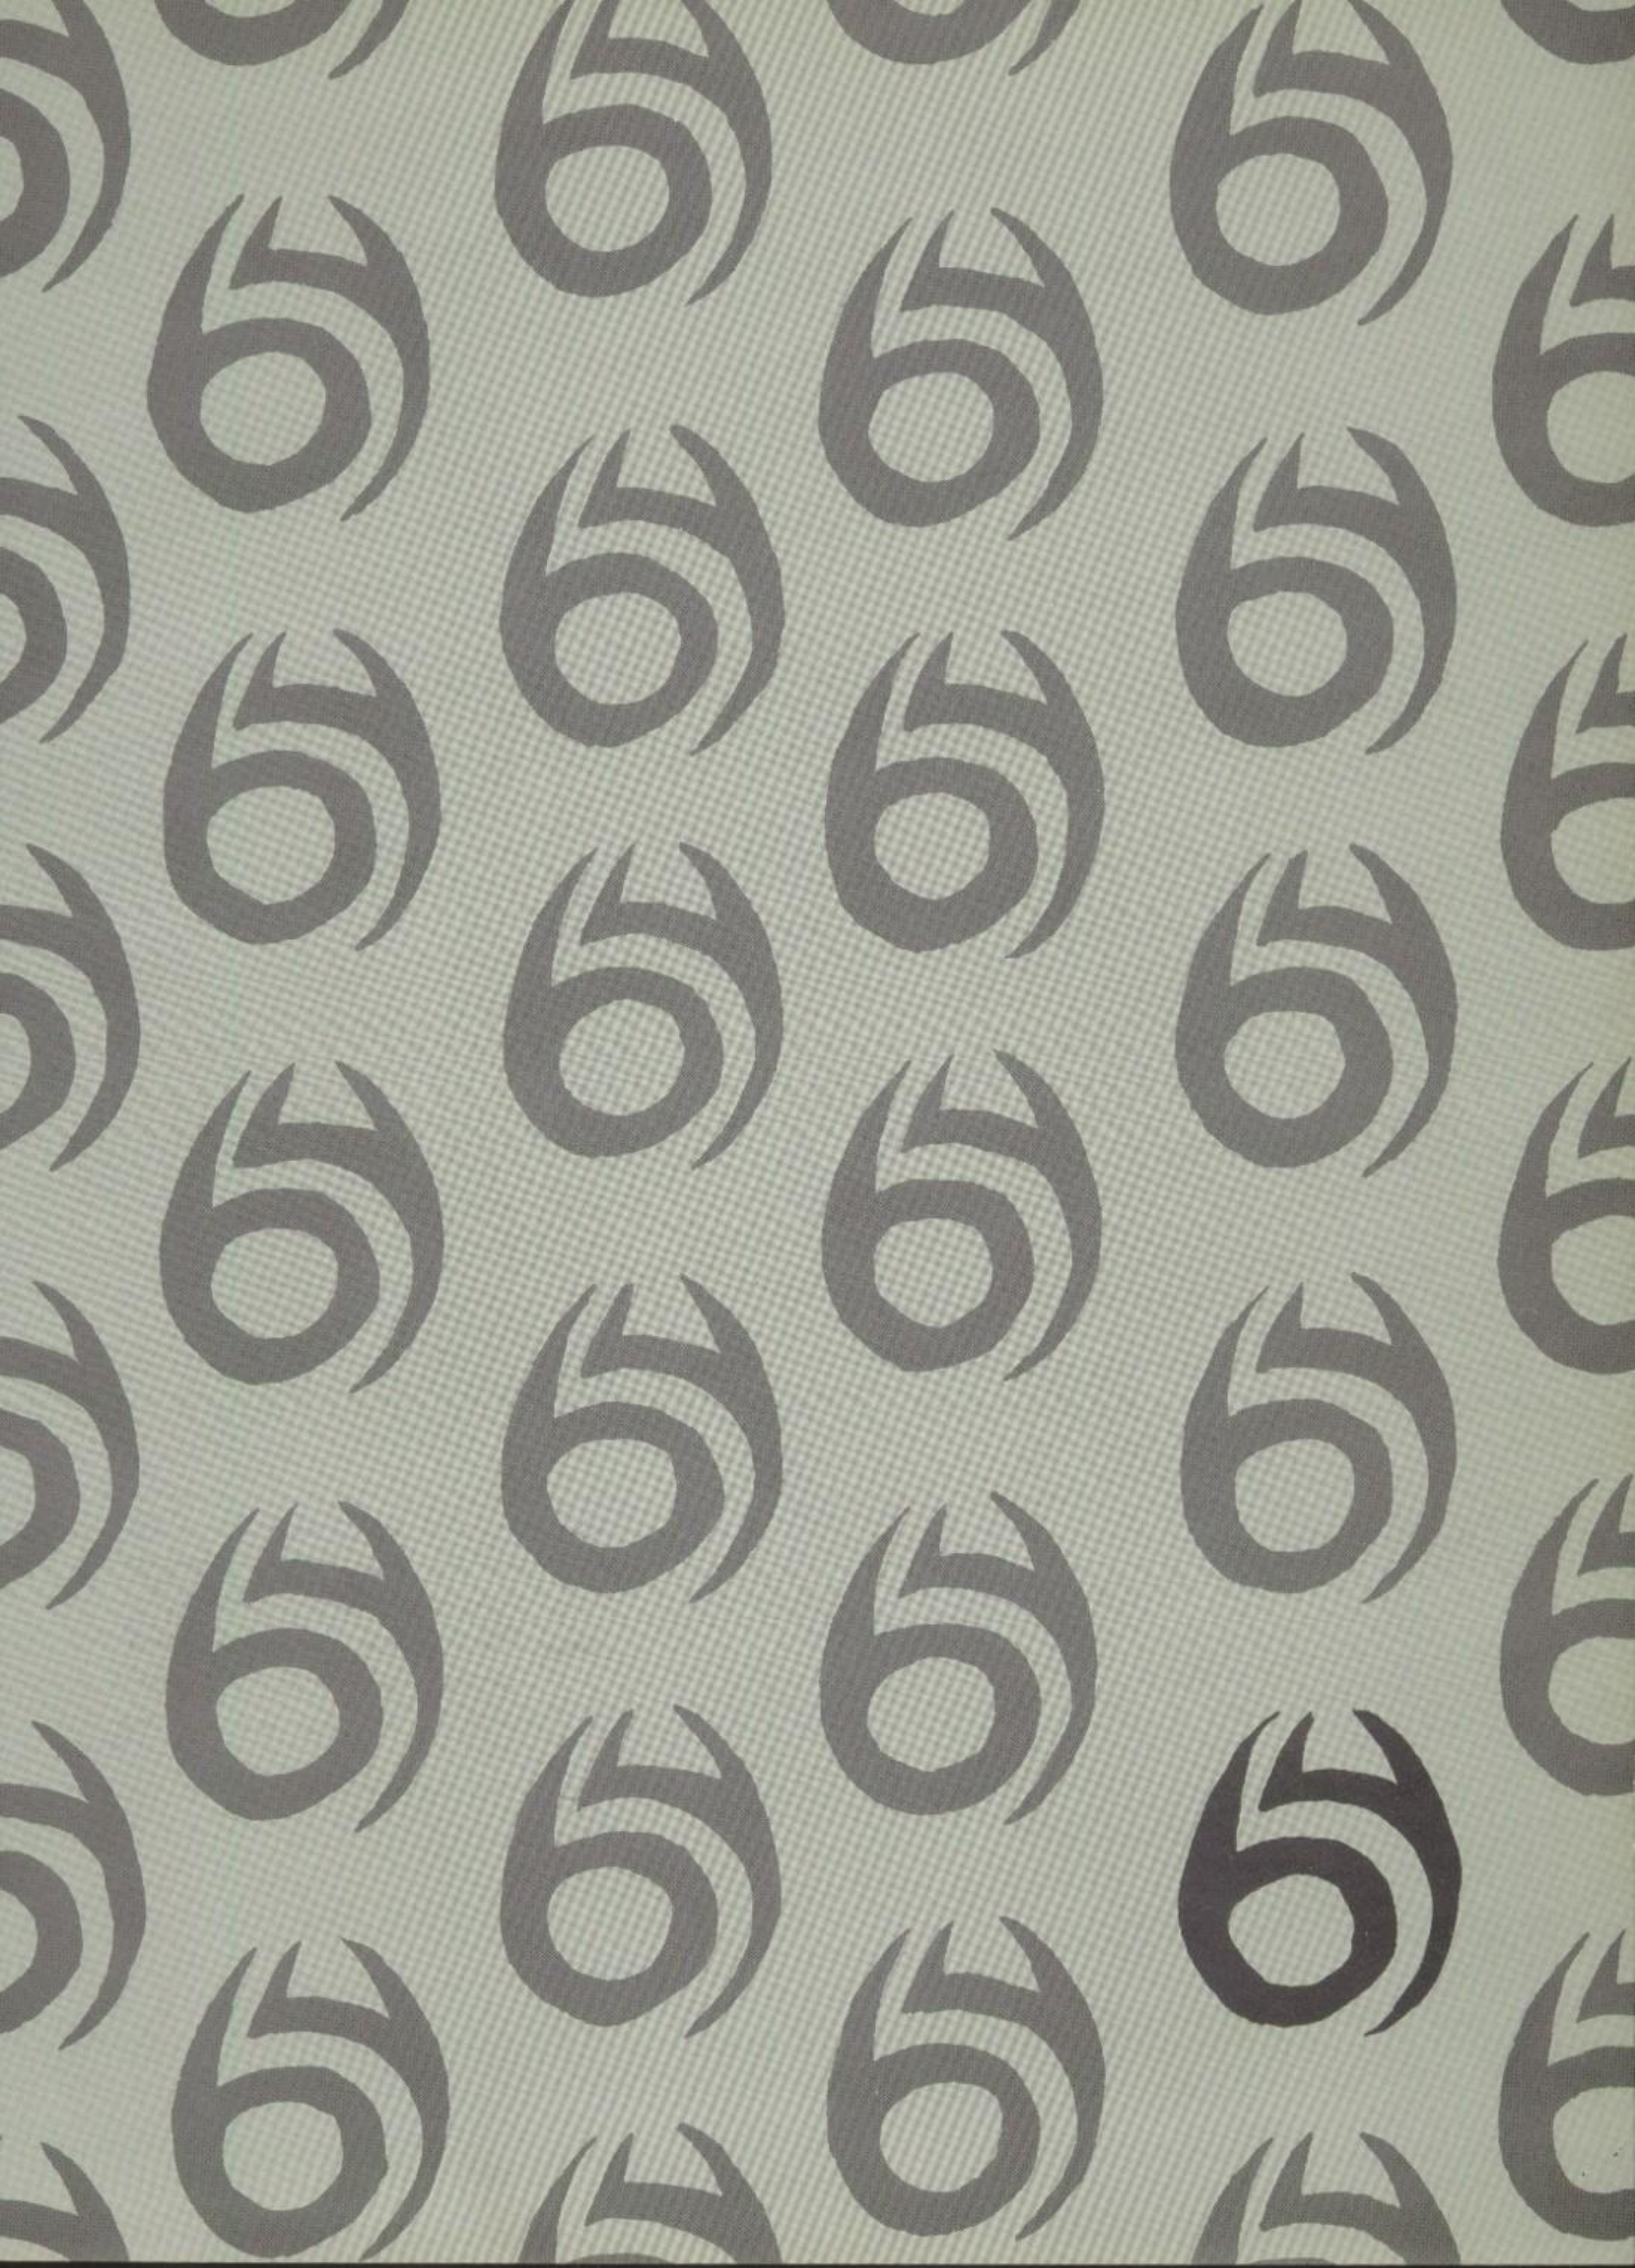
Mrs. Dienema , the housekeeper, has a big job in organizing the girls on Student Service.

Miss Conroy, known for her ready wit, discharges her duties in the bookstore.

Mr. Shank, the man responsible for keeping Derham clean and comfortable, strikes a pose in the boiler room.

Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Rahilly
are important links in the chain of people who keep Derham running smoothly.



Senior Class Officers

Senior year gives added responsibility and influence to a high school student. Thus it is important that the Senior Class choose competent and respected officers. The Presidents' duties include chairmanship of class meetings, the organization of the fall semi-formal dance, the Senior – Junior luncheon, and the co-ordination of all other class projects. It is she who leads and represents her class throughout the year. The Vice-President serves as the President's right hand man. The responsibility of writing all necessary correspondence rests with the class Secretary. All financial matters are attended to by the Treasurer.

Cindy -
The best of luck to you in the future and remember me.

Student Council

Kathleen Dower – Student Council President

Pamela Sunderland – Secretary

Student Council, Derham's student government, strives to attain a better understanding between the faculty and students. Meetings are held on Wednesday at noon. Representatives from every homeroom, the class presidents, and chairmen of various clubs attend. The Student Council President, elected by the entire student body in May, presides over the meetings. The Secretary records the minutes and takes care of all necessary correspondence. This year's Council has enrolled Derham in the National Honor Society and in the National Association of Student Councils. In addition, the Council has inaugurated uniform cleaning days, has sponsored a convacation with Bob Ryan as speaker, and is keeping the record supply up to date.

Contact

Following in the footsteps of the Ecumenical Council, Contact this year has been reorganized to reflect the new movements in the Church. Two general meetings are held each month during religion class. Members are divided into groups of about tens girls. Two Central Committee members lead the discussion in each group. The girls seek to sanctify themselves and by their good example – the entire student body. First Friday Mass at Holy Spirit, stuffing envelopes at the CYC, a Twilight retreat, and Sunday evening Lenten programs are a few of the activities Contact has sponsored dur- the past year.

Kathlyn Hickey and Mary Ochsner serve as Contact Co-chairmen.

G.A.A. is an athletic club organized to give girls at Derham an opportunity to participate in sports during the school year. An elected executive board plans different, fun activities for all members. Horseback riding in the rain, the volleyball tournament, a skating party, an overnight for the board, and the basketball tournament are all part of the G.A.A. program at Derham. By accumulating points for participation in sports activities, members may earn a shield and chevrons, a letter or a pin. These awards are distributed at the Awards Assembly in the spring.

Sophomores enjoy playing soccer outside during the warm autumn months.

Tryouts for the volleyball tournament were held on the first Saturday in December. Ten girls from each class were chosen for the four teams. On the following Saturday the Sophomores defeated the Juniors and the Freshmen outplayed the Seniors to win two out of three games. In a close championship match, the Freshmen edged out the Sophomores, last year's champions. Thus the volleyball trophy was rotated among the three Freshman homerooms.

A very successful Derham tennis team came into being last spring. The girls played and won three matches – two with Archbishop Murray and one with Our Lady of Peace. The two doubles' teams and the three singles' competitors seem to have the necessary potential for another winning season.

Laeti Latini, initiated last fall by third and fourth year Latin students, aims to promote an interest in the Latin language and in ancient Roman civilization. A formal constitution was drawn up and signed on October 25. The AEGIS, the club paper, was published on the Ides of December. Slides and movies, a Latin week, guest speakers and participation in Latin contests are planned activities of the club. Club officers: Jeanne Rogge, Sanda Kubes, Melinda Dokken.

Working with their classmates, the Mission Club delegates organize and promote the annual class mission projects. This year a stamp drive was sponsored by the club. Representatives elected by each class are Barb Schoeller, Barb Schultz, Judy Kurhajetz, Irene Bliersbach, and Kathy Jones.

Le Cercle Francais brings a real French spirit to its members. At monthly meetings, members learn French songs, skits and games. In the spring a French newspaper, containing essays and poems written by French students, is issued, Fashion news, articles on cuisine, and news about members of the club are included.

French Club representatives: Sitting – P. Knaff, J. Giefer, M. K. Bisanz, S. Hogseth. Standing – M. Kelly, D. Kalal, A. Hissam, M. Mock, J. Hetznecker, C. Blazejak, K. Hickey, K. Sonnen, K. Olsson, C. Van Hoven.

Members of the Speech Club are divided into groups according to their abilities and interests. This year emphasis is being placed on oratory, debate, speeches and readings. Speech club representatives pantomiming a scrubwoman are Jeanne Groh, Mary Jo LaNasa, Pat Wesolowski, Mary Beth McGroarty.

The Derham Debate Team, a branch of the speech club, is the only Catholic girls' team in St. Paul that holds membership in the National Forensic League. Derham debaters have participated in two round-robin debates at St. Thomas College, in a South St. Paul debate for beginners and in a Tri-state debate held in Mankato. The club's standards are high and include a 200 card minimum for membership. Pictured are debaters Sue Aberwald, Mary Peil, Debbie Dokken, and Katie Giefer.

Since everything else was filled up on the other page I'm signing my John Hancock here. You're a real good kid Cindy and I'm glad I got to know you better this year. Never forget Terry

The Red Cross student program at Derham Hall seeks to make all Derhamites aware of the Red Cross and the work it does. Projects are sponsored which encourage a student to serve her community by giving of her time. Seated are representatives: M. Galvani, P. Knaff, P. Holly. Standing: M. McGroarty, T. Shiely, M. Datko, P. Powell, S. Goodman.

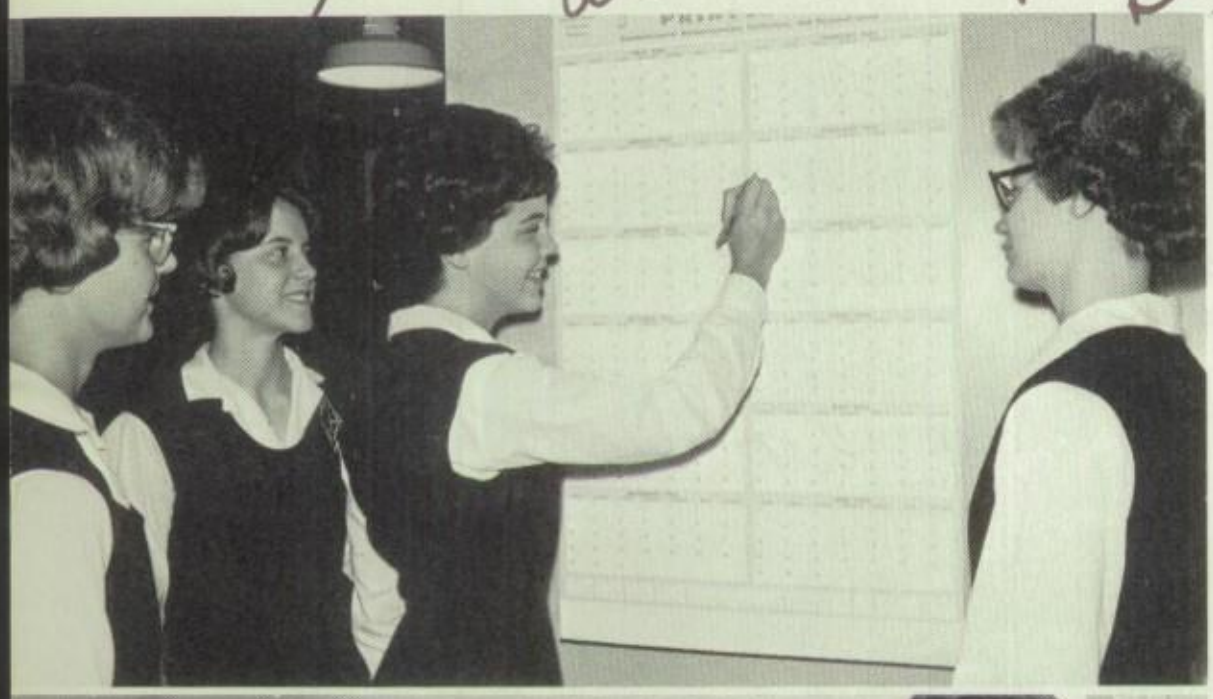
We really were a busy music Board this year!! Stay Good – Mol



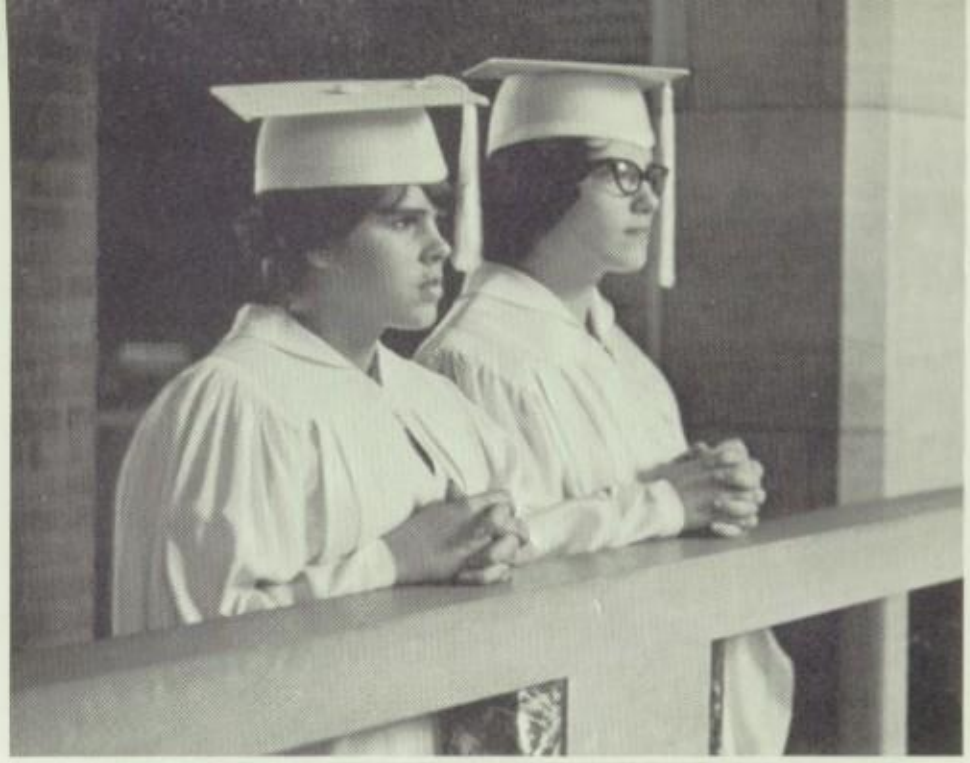
Derham has fostered still another club this year. Under the direction of Sister Janelle, a music club is now functioning. The music board has planned a series of special events to take place once a month. The club's primary purpose is to promote interest in music and culture. In addition to specified activities, music club members attend outside concerts and programs, such as those sponsored by the Schubert Club of St. Paul.

Pat Wesolowski, Molly Rumsey, Mary Beth Glarner, and Maureen O'Brien plan the year's activities for music club members.

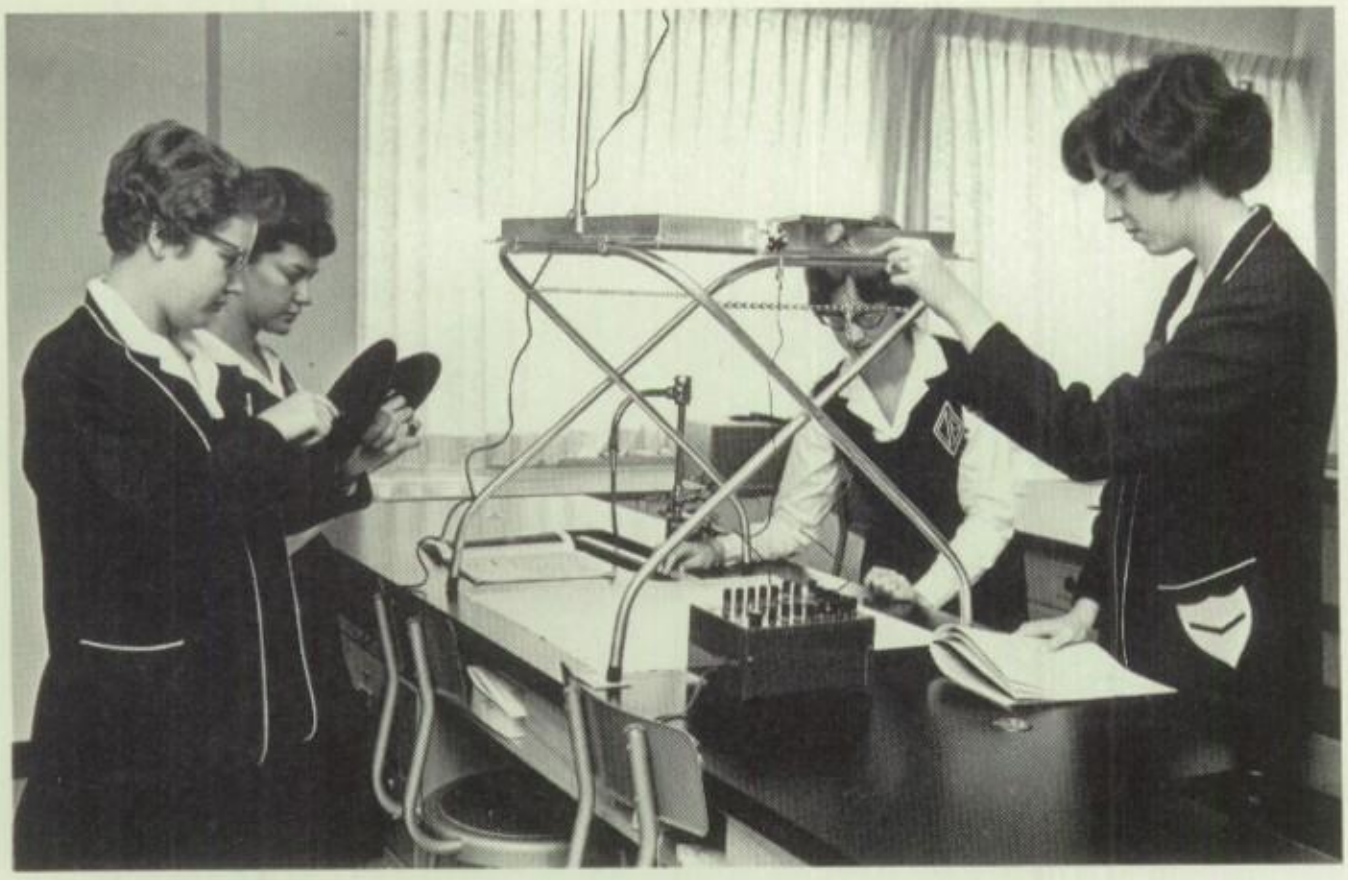
Under the able direction of Sister Janelle, the choral club offers all students interested in music an opportunity to sing and to study the theory and history of music. This year underclassmen, as well as Juniors and Seniors, are instructed in the reading, writing, and singing of notes and in the art of harmony. Singing was an important "first" for this year's choral group.

Sue Kelly, Pat Lovegreen, Carol Blazejak, Mary Ann Rice, and Rosie Maykoski prepare to record a song on the new tape recorder.

Retreat



"Religion is living life as it comes, day by day, according to the Ten Commandments as interpreted by the Catholic Church to obtain happiness here and hereafter." This means of taking religion out of Church was the keynote of the retreat given this year by Father Joseph Gregory, S.J. The retreat, which began January 22, was a fitting way to start the year 1964. By stressing complete silence and general confessions, Father encouraged serious thinking. To conclude the retreat, Father enrolled all the students in the Apostleship of Prayer. Members of the Apostleship consecrated themselves to God by living daily the Morning Offering.



Physics students measure the width of periodic waves by stopping their motion with a stroboscope.

Under the supervision of Sister Janelle, Freshmen religion students divide into groups to discuss the topic for the day.

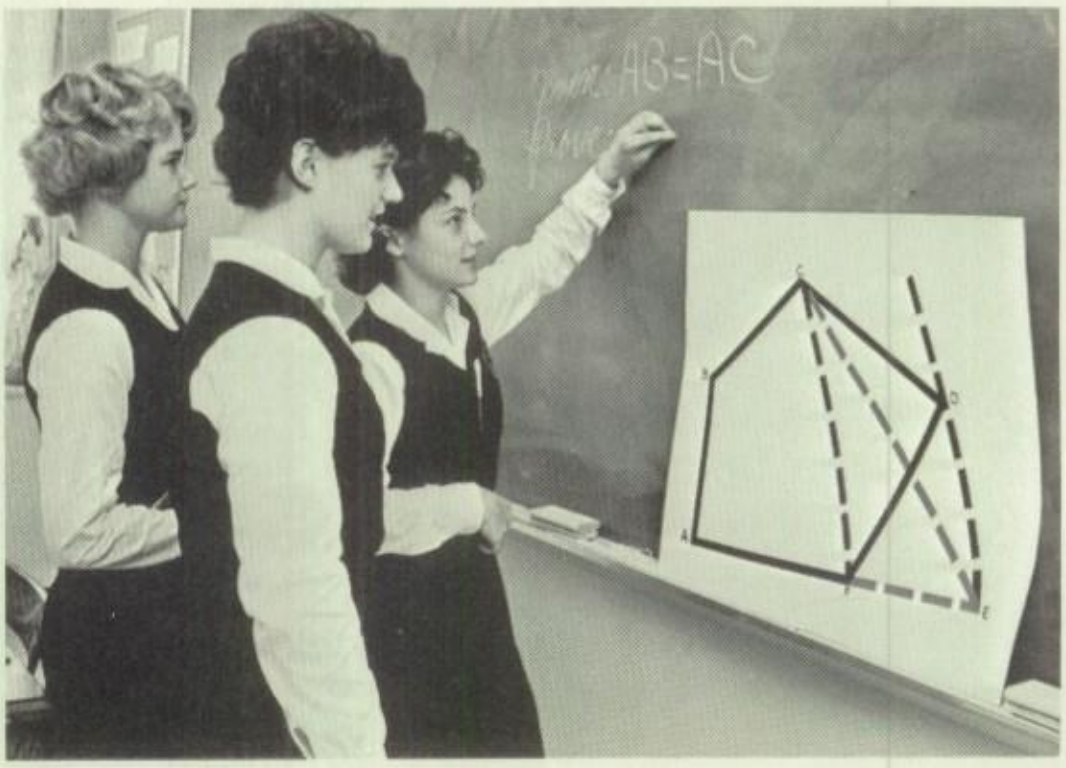
Biology students point out to their classmates the characteristics of various leaves.



Geometry students try to discover by deductive reasoning the geometric properties related to the poster they study.

Study in the library offers students an opportunity to use library facilities as an aid to their daily studies.

BROKEN NECK?

Dear Cindy - Too bad you were in your my Algebra class - you are fun. Remember me as I hear you can, and see you next year in those "hallowed" halls.
Love, Anita

Talent Show

The talented Freshmen treated the student body to an original "Debbie Derham" TV show on October 23. Several celebrities, including Carol Burnett, Lucille Ball, and the Doublemint Twins, appared as guest stars. Folk singers, a recitation of "Jesus Hingin' on Dat Tree", and an entertaining melodrama added to the fun.

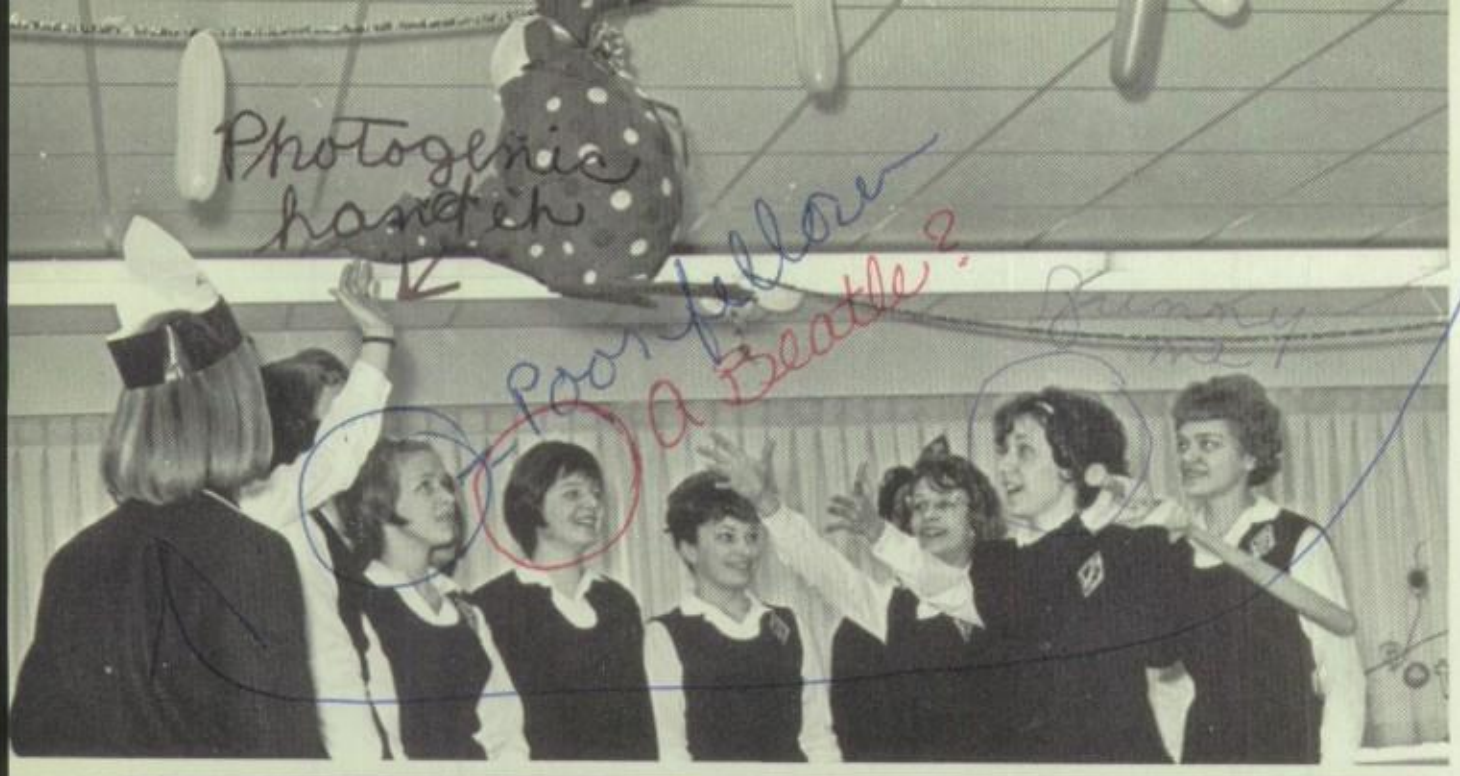
Always remember my famous dance

For their mission project, the Junior class presented a hootenanny held in the gym on December 10. The Wanderers, a group composed of two St. Thomas boys and a St. Kate's Senior, sang familiar folk songs to the accompaniment of a guitar and a bango. Yvonne Fink, a Freshman at St. Catherine's, sang some rather haunting melodies. In one of these, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home Again", she compares the sadder Scottish version with the more triumphant American rendition. The country style decorations in the gym and sitting on the floor added to the hootenanny atmosphere.

Mission Projects

Seniors prepare to host the underclassmen to sloppy Joe's, salads and potato chips for the Senior Smorgasbord on February 6.

Class Parties



The annual Freshman Epiphany Party proved a success in providing fun and entertainment for faculty and students. The party, held on January 6, began in the gymnasium with group games and the crowning of Barb Datko, Katie Giefer, and Eugenie Van Rabenau as the three kings of the Orient. Following the crowning, the party proceeded to the cafeteria where punch and cookies were served to accompany lunch.

On Friday, Dec. 20, the Sophomores sponsored a Christmas party for the entire school. While the guests sang Christmas carols and ate holiday cookies, jolly old St. Nicholas made his appearance. With the help of his elves, St. Nick passed out popcorn balls and candy canes. Everyone left school and began Christmas vacation in high spirits as a result of the party.

Decorating for the Sophomore Christmas party are Janice Fabio, Irene Bliersbach, Carol Baker, and Marcia Kremer.

Music Recitals

Senior recitals provided Connie Van Hoven and Mary Beth Glarner a climax to their four years of music at Derham Hall. Both girls have been active in music during high school. Their accomplishments include performances for St. Paul's Schubert Club, a joint recital their sophomore year and participation in the Minnesota Music Teachers Association contest. For the past two years they have also represented Derham's Music Department at the Twin City Catholic Music Recital. On April 12 and 26, Mary Beth and Connie each gave private recitals. Each girl chose pieces representing all periods of music. Composers ranged from the earlier Bach to the romantic Chopin and Grieg, to the impressionistic Debussy, to the contemporary Shostakovich.

Pat Wesolowski and Faye Farquharson gave a joint recital in April. Pat, a music student of eight years, played pieces composed by Bach, Beethoven, and Chopin. Faye, who has taken lessons for six years, performed selections from Corday, Grieg, and Arensky.

Choral Pageant

The Choral Club presented "An Old Fashioned Christmas" concert on December 23. Dressed in costumes of the early 1900's, the choralers sang Christmas carols in English, French, and German. The St. Gregory's Boys' Choir and students from St. Thomas College appeared with the Derham girls.

On the evening of November 1, Derham girls dated their dads for a dinner-dance at the Prom Ballroom. This was the first time that the traditional Father-Daughter Dance was held away from school. Each girl received a large, white chrysanthemum from her date. Centerpieces of autumn leaves and yellow and oranges flowers decorated each table. After enjoying a delicious chicken dinner, Fathers taught their daughters new steps as they danced to the music of the Joe Bush Band.

Father-Daughter Dinner Dance

Around the World

On the evening of November 29, Juniors and Seniors journeyed "Around the World" right here in our gym. Each girl and her escort visited the Parisian sidewalk cafe, a South Seas' island, an eerie Scottish castle, Ol' Mexico, and the exotic Japanese pagoda. The Commodores added to the international atmosphere by playing familiar songs of foreign origin. Sophomore hostesses, appropriately dressed for the occasion, served punch, cookies, and little sandwiches to all the guests.

Committee Heads: Sitting - Linda Holub, Mary Beth Glarner, Stevie Goodman, Kathy Jones. Standing - Connie Van Hoven, Mary Ochsner, Sharon Eddleston.

Misty

On the evening of March thirtieth, the Juniors and Seniors danced to the music of Ray Fields at their annual spring dance. The theme "Misty" was carried out by the Juniors with pale blue carnations, a lovely fountain, and park scenery. The evening concluded with Mary Kay Zagaria's unforgetable singing of "Misty".

Committee Heads: Susan Hogseth,

Teresa Rank, Mary Kay Zagaria,

Colleen Dougherty, Patricia O'Kane.

Mary Doerrer, Linda Meyers, Teresa Conway.

Kathy Jones, Kathy Voigt, Carol Heller, Janice Fabio.

Sponsored by the Student Council, Derhamites revived an old tradition with May festivities. An afternoon of fun for everyone was provided by the home rooms. Fourteen brightly decorated booths including the ever popular jail, and roller skating were among the attractions of the day.

Christine Shiely, Barbara Schultz, Patricia Robertson, Judy Galvin, Kathleen Mullarky, Mary Ann Mellin.

The National Honor Society

April thirtieth of this year marked the initiation of the Hugh Derham Chapter into the National Honor Society. The girls selected were chosen for their honor on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Following the ceremony, the candidates and their mothers were served lunch.

Senior-Junior Luncheon

On May sixteenth, the Seniors presented the Juniors with the keys of leadership. After the luncheon, speeches were given by Mary Ochsner, Senior Class President, and Karen Raths, Junior Class President. Patricia Hanley read the class history. Sharon Eddleston presented her class' last will and testament to the class of '65.

The seniors sing their class song, "These Are My Favorite Things".
